Dear Durson,

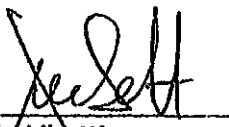

As you already know, Alitalia has gone through an extremely difficult and challenging year. The Company has made major commitments and has implemented significant cost control measures in order to rise above our current financial crisis and to continue to maintain our presence as a leading competitor in the world market. Each and every one of you has been called upon to continue to collaborate in this effort so that we may continue to strive for excellence and make Alitalia a success.

Although we were unable to grant any merit related bonuses in 2005 due to the current situation, we remain firm in our commitment to our employees in North America who continue to demonstrate great dedication, effort and deliver results. Accordingly we are pleased to advise you of the following:

- On January 31, 2006, you will receive a lump sum of $1,093.88, less applicable taxes, which represents an increase to your base salary retroactive to January 1, 2005. This increase will also be reflected in your paychecks starting with the January 16, 2006 payroll period. Your new monthly salary is $3,004.51.

Thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

Giulio Libutti
